FOR COUNTY ASSESSOR

Mr. Fred Wells of this city is candidate for that responsible position subject to the action of the Democratic Party.

In the proper column of this paper
will be found the announcement of Mr.
W. Wells of this city as a candidate for County Assessor, subject to the action of the Democratic primary next August. Mr. Wells is the second gentleman to announce himself for this responsible position.

Mr. Wells is a Masonic countian by birth and has spent his entire life in this community. For a number of years he made his home at Morans-burg. He is at present proprietor of the Royal Restaurant on Market street, having been there for the past several months.

Mr. Wells has been a life-long Democrat and he has always been among the leaders in all movements for the advancement of his party's interest in the county. Although he has never held a public office, he is well qualified in every particular and will doubtless have very strong support in the primary.

Mr. Oscar Judd of Clark street left yesterday morning on a visit with relatives in Newcastle, Ind.

HIGHLY HONORED

Colonel Clarence L. Wood, Cashier
of the Farmers and Traders Bank was in Frankfort this week, called there by Gov. A. O. Stanley and Banking Commissioner G. C. Peers. The visit was made at the urgent request of these gentlemen who tendered to Mr.
Wood the position of Deputy Banking Commissioner. This is an honor which Mr. Wood should highly appreciate and no doubt does as it speaks volumes of his success as a banker and shows that his management of the Farmers & Traders Bank and its wonderful growth has attracted the attention of the State Banking Department of Kentucky and that they fully appreciate his splendid ability in this line of business. While Mr. Wood has only been in the banking business a short time he has always been looked upon and recognized as a good business man.

Mr. Wood's many friends are glad to learn however that on account of his long association with the people and affairs of Mason county and the confidence which is expressed by the wonderful growth of the Banking Institution with which he is connected
he will not accept the tendered position.

Mrs. Rachel Defosse is very sick with a severe case of the grip.

FINAL SALES

Of Week Show That Maysville Market
Is Steadily Growing Better—One
Crop Averages $37.21.

The final sales of the week at the various houses were very heavy. The Farmers & Planters, Independent-Central and Amazon reported sales. The Homs reported blacked sale with about 400,000 pounds of the weed on the floor. The total sales for the three houses reporting was $87,790 pounds
at an average of $18.67.

The Maysville market is steadily growing better as the records of the past week will show. The average for Friday was $1.01 per hundred pounds higher than that of Monday. A better class of tobacco is being offered at all of the houses and the prices are going up accordingly.

A crop of tobacco sold at the Farmers & Planters House for the splendid average of $37.21. The tobacco was raised by Mr. J. W. Browning of Mason county. This is a record as far as this market is concerned and probably for the entire world. This week has certainly been a record-breaker as far as the Maysville market is concerned.

Following are the sales reported

VOTED THANKS TO MR. HARRISON

At the last meeting of the Board of City Mission on January 16, 1917, a vote of acknowledgment and thanks was extended to Mr. R. M. Harrison, councilman of the Fifth Ward, who superintended the City Mission for the past year. The contribution was doubly appreciated owing to the extra demand on the Mission in consequence of the extreme cold winter and high cost of necessities.

The Board feels that a public acknowledgment of this generous gift be made as the spirit that prompted it is the one big thing that makes the work of the City Mission possible.

IS SUPERINTENDENT OF HOSPITAL

Miss Geraldine Brothers of Cincinnati, who has been in this city for the past six weeks has been selected as superintendent of the Hayswood Hospital, to succeed Miss Annie Casey, who resigned several days ago. Miss Brothers took charge of the Hospital on last Wednesday week ago. She is a graduate of Seton Hospital, Cincinnati, and is well qualified for the position to which she has been elected.
She has had much experience in hospital work and is a very competent woman and will doubtless make her work a success while in this city.

PLANNING TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Limestone Lodge No. 36, Knights of Pythias, are planning to celebrate the 53 anniversary of the founding of the order on February 20. Although no definite arrangements have been made,
a splendid program of speeches and music will be given.

CELEBRATED 86 BIRTHDAY

Mrs. E. C. Philster celebrated her 86 birthday Thursday at her home on West Third street. This youthful spirit shows none of the ravages of time and her friends, old and young, swarmed around her to congratulate her, as well as to catch inspiration for the blessings of life—remarkable mentality, strength of will, gentle breeding, a wreath of sunshine and reparative which fairly radiate from her. Mrs.
Philster was born in Ballston Spa, New York. At an early age she came to Maysville. In 1847 she was married to the late Hon. E. C. Philster. At the time of their marriage he was mayor of the city. Mrs. Rebecca Wilson, Mrs.
Sallie Ricketts, Mrs. John L. Whitaker, Miss Lottie Wood and Miss Sallie Forman were guests at the celebration and this youthful eulogie lifted the glass of grape juice to the health of Mrs. Philster.

DEATH OF MRS. OSCAR NASH

Mrs. Oscar Nash died at her home in Tollesboro Thursday after a short illness, she having been stricken with paralysis several weeks ago. She is survived by her husband.

POPULAR COUPLE

Mr. Fred Diener and Miss Lulu Dersch Surprised Their Friends by Marrying This Morning at 6 O'clock.

A marriage of much interest to the citizens of Maysville was that of Mr.
Fred Diener to Miss Lulu Dersch, which occurred this morning at 6 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. P. M. Jones at the pa-ronage of the St. Patrick's Church.

The marriage came as a surprise to their many friends and acquaintances, as it was not generally known. The couple had kept it a secret until almost the last minute.

Miss Dersch is the daughter of Mrs.
John Dersch of West Second street and is one of the city's fairest and most accomplished young women. She is a leader in her set and very popular with everyone. Mr. Diener is a most excellent young man and has many friends in this city and elsewhere. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Diener of Forest avenue.

Following the ceremony the couple left on a short wedding trip to Cincinnati. They will return to this city about the first of the week.

MAYSVILLE GIRLS DEFEATED

The girls' basketball team of the Maysville High School was defeated last night on the local floor by the Paris team, the score being 54 to 9.
The Maysville girls were outclassed from the very start, but nevertheless played very good basketball. The following were the line-ups and the points scored by each player:

Paris—Elder 5, and Rose 34, forwards; McCord 9, center; McClintock 2, and Heller, guards; C. Rose 4, substitute.

Maysville—Misses Smith and Ball
7, forwards; Miss Slye, center; Misses Wood 2, and Berry, guards.

Miss L. Rose was the star player of the Paris aggregation, she making over half of the points for her team.

Mrs. R. L. Cooper of the county, is visiting in Cincinnati today.

WHAT HENRY WATTERSON SAYS

The President's appearance in the Senate yesterday and his reading of an address solemnly proposing the most radical of revolutions not only in the Government of the United States, but in the government of the world, marks the climax of the sensational series of verbal performances which have characterized his Administration almost from its beginning. And it was a climax for which even all that had gone before had hardly prepared the thoughtful mind—a climax which, though partially foreshadowed by his persistent assumptions to speak for "humanity" rather than for the Government he heads, and most lately by the broad intimations in his identical note to the belligerents of Europe and his several explanations of the note, nevertheless so far transcended the limits which it was believed that even he was prepared to go that it was, as one Senator expressed it, "staggering." It was staggering—staggering to Americans who have been taught from their cradles that the principles which he would now discard as obsolete are the principles on which their republic had been founded and sustained; staggering to those who are still loyal to the faith of the Democratic party as coming from a man whom they had chosen as their chief and into whose hands they had placed the Government happy in the conviction that they were placing it in the hands of a great Democrat who would administer the charge worthily as the successor of the great Democrats from whom and through whom that Government comes down to us as it is and as it was meant to be; staggering to millions across the seas who are fighting and dying for the very principles our own fathers fought and died for, but who are now told by our President that to win a victory would be a crime, that no peace which is won can endure, that while we are not to have a part in making the terms of peace we are going to take part in making the terms of peace we are going to take part in enforcing peace and that peace must be such as we in advance prescribe. It is, indeed, staggering—this formal, actual proposal of a transcendental dream for the instant, practical establishment by force of the Millennium of Manhood, and the Courier-Journal has not the heart, at the moment of first impressions, to proceed into an analysis of its fatal inconsistencies, fantastic illusions and limitless possibilities for misfortune and mischief.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

ISSUES—NOT INDIVIDUALS

The chief obstacle in the path of the movement for unification of the Republican party is the persistent determination of certain men, though acknowledging themselves outside the Republican party, to dictate the personal of the management of that party's national affairs. Such men, who are so few in number and so conspicuous by their recent utterances that they need not be named, expend their energies in attacks upon men rather than in discussion of issues.

The recent criticism of the selection of John T. Adams as Vice-Chairman of the Republican National Committee, is merely one illustration of tactics of this kind. Those who criticize his selection have not one word to offer against the principles for which he stands, his record in public life, his ability as a leader in politics, or his loyalty to the Republican party. Although he has the confidence of the Republicans of his own State, as shown by his selection as National Committeeman by popular vote, also has the endorsement of even those Republican leaders in his State with who he has not always been in harmony, and has repeatedly demonstrated his ability as a party worker, yet he is made the object of an attack by men who have absolutely nothing against him except that they wish one of their own number to occupy the position for which he was chosen.

The successful campaigns of the future must be fought for the success of principles, not for the aggrandizement of a few individuals. The experience of 1912 and the more recent experience of 1916 should prove to every intelligent man that continuous efforts to create friction among those who believe in Republican principles can only result in the success of the Democratic party and the perpetuation of its unsound economic theories, its increasing paternalism, its extravagance and incompetence in both legislation and administration.

WITH COLORS FLYING

Senator Martine of New Jersey intends to go down with his colors flying. He will leave the Senate on the fourth of March, and he will leave it with a consistent record. He is one of the few Democrats in that body who have not recognized their master's voice from the White House. On nearly every question where the President has raised his ipse dixit as the special reason for compelling a Senatorial vote, Mr. Martine has stood in opposition and has given good and sufficient reason for so doing. For this he has suffered Presidential disfavor and the whole force of the administration was exerted in the last New Jersey primary to deprive Senator Martine of the renomination which he was seeking. He got it, even as against the prime favorite of the White House, Judge Wescott, whose sonorous eloquence had twice been raised in a national convention in Wilson's behalf. Martine was not re-elected, because New Jersey has returned to Republican allegiance. Nor has defeat humbled him to the extent that he cuts out of the President's hand. Alone among the Democrats in the Senate he voted against the resolution approving of the President's "peace note," even after that resolution had been so denatured that it meant nothing more than a vote in a rural debating society in favor of the proposition that peace is better than war. Mr. Wilson, of course, will view Martine's departure with composure. An independent Democrat is no better than a Republican to the President's mind. In fact, independent Democrats, Republicans and rebellious college freshmen have the same classification according to Mr. Wilson.

NEW USE FOR A DOCTOR

It is a curious story which the Providence Journal tells—that the President, when he communicates with Col. House, has to do so through Dr. Grayson because there have been so many "leaks" of confidential matter from the White House. If the plan worked well in the case of the Colonel, why didn't the President try it with the European belligerents?

Scene From the Big Dancing Festival, "SEPTEMBER MORN," During the Song Hit, "Where Is the Pleasure in Wine and Song, If the Woman Is Not There?" Coming to the Washington Theater Tuesday Night, January 30.

Seats are now on sale at Crane & Snider's Paint Store for the engagement of "September Morn," LeComte and Flesher's musical festival which is making its first extended tour and will be seen at the Washington Theater Tuesday night, January 30th. Every indication points to a record-breaking demand for the seats. Mail orders have been piling in since the first announcement that we were to see "September Morn" and almost every visitor to the box office has made some inquiry regarding the engagement. It is really remarkable that local playgoers should have an opportunity to witness this delightful production during its first extended tour, as they are generally forced to wait a full season after the New York and Chicago engagements. In the splendid cast to appear here in "September Morn" are: William Moore, Ruth Wilkins, Maud K. Williams, Valere Truc, Leslie Jones, Billy Murphy, James Baber and others of equal note, assisted by the well known LaSalle heavy chorus.

A HINT TO THE WISE

To any of our friends who are thinking of running for office in the November primary in 1917 we recommend the following inventory of his campaign expenses filed by a candidate last year:

"Last four months and twenty-three days canvassing; lost 1,349 hours sleep thinking about the election; lost 43 acres of corn and a whole sweet potato crop. Lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal encounter with an opponent. Fed one leaf, four shoats and five sheep to county barbeques. Gave away two pairs of suspenders, four calico dresses, five dolls and 13 baby rattlers. Kissed 126 babies, kindled 14 kitchen fires, put up 8 stoves, cut 14 cords of wood, carried 24 buckets of water, gathered 7 wagon loads of corn, pulled 476 bundles of fodder, walked 4,064 miles, shook hands 9,086 times, told 10,000 lies and talked enough to make in print 1,000 volumes size of the patent office reports. Attended 16 revival meetings, was baptized four different times by humorism and twice some other way, contributed $500 to foreign missions, made love to nine grass widows, was dog bit 39 times and then got defeated."—Exchange.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years doctors pronounced it to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

LEAK HEARING AGAIN MONDAY

Abundance of Data Concerning Alleged Tip on Hand, Says Henry—Brokers Willing—No Refusals of Request to Furnish Information on Sales.

New York, January 26.—The inquiry into the alleged "leak" of advance information in President Wilson's peace note will be resumed here Monday morning, it was announced tonight by Representative Robert L. Henry, chairman of the House Rules Committee. He said he had sent telegrams calling back to this city members of the committee who returned to Washington.

"We will have abundance of data on hand," declared Mr. Henry, "to go ahead without a break in the inquiry."

Regarding information brought by the committee concerning transactions on the New York Stock Exchange within the period of the alleged "leak," Mr. Henry said:

"In my judgment we will have everything we want in less than five days."

He added that the committee had met with no "refusal" from brokers. "We are encountering no hostility from them," said Mr. Henry. "A number of statements have been received from them today, complying with the committee's request."

Bernard Baruch and possibly J. P. Morgan, as well as others familiar with Wall Street affairs, may be among the first witnesses called when the committee resumes its hearings, according to Mr. Henry.

The telegraph and telephone companies, the chairman asserted, had been asked by the committee to preserve all slips or records of telegraph messages or telephone conversations between New York and Washington during the period of the alleged "leak."

"Only those people mentioned in Mr. Lawson's testimony and Mr. Lawson himself will be called to the witness stand if it is shown they are links in the facts developed by the committee's inquiry," Mr. Henry concluded.

After a conference between officials of the stock exchange, their attorneys and Sherman L. Whipple, counsel for the Rules Committee of the House, the following statement was issued tonight:

"In order still further to expedite responses to the requests for immediate information from brokers on the part of the Rules Committee, modifications have been made. A statement of such will be sent out by the Stock Exchange officials tomorrow morning."

THAW'S MENTAL CONDITION DECLARED STILL CLOUDED

Philadelphia, January 25.—Harry K. Thaw, who is in a hospital here slowly recovering from self-inflicted wounds, was examined today by Dr. John W. Wainman, third police surgeon. The examination was made in the presence of Dr. Elwood Kirby, Thaw's private physician, and at its conclusion Dr. Wainman stated that he had found the patient's mental condition still clouded and that it was difficult to say when this "haze" would clear up. He said that he agreed with Dr. Kirby that loss of blood was responsible for Thaw's present state of mental cloudiness. Detectives constantly are on guard at Thaw's bedside awaiting to arrest him on a bench warrant issued in New York following his indictment on charges of kidnapping and assaulting Frederick Gunz, Jr., a nineteen-year-old Kansas City high school boy.

You never can tell. Many a man has engaging ways who isn't contemplating matrimony.

Tones Dull Nerves

Many persons drag through their daily duties for weeks and even months. While they don't feel exactly sick, yet they are under the weather nearly all the time. In fact, nine out of ten get this "dull nerve" feeling once in a while. It is simply lack of nerve force.

The best way to get rid of it, is to visit a Chiropractor and take a few spinal adjustments. You'll feel a "nerve glow" at your spine unlike any other feeling you ever had. This means that nature is tuning up the dull nerves without the use of drugs. Try it. Ask for booklet.

TRIC ACID IN YOUR FOOD

Maysville People Must Learn the Danger of a Heavy Meat Diet.

Even dogs can eat too much meat. Certainly, many people "dig their graves with their teeth."

Few get enough exercise to justify meat more than once a day. Meat brings uric acid.

The kidneys try hard to get rid of that poison. But often a backache or some other unusual ill.

Will show that the kidneys need help.

The time-tried remedy, then, is Doan's Kidney Pills.

The remedy backed by Maysville testimony.

Read this case.

Mrs. W. A. Schatzmann, 605 E. Second street, Maysville, says: "From the benefit I have received from Doan's Kidney Pills, which I buy at Chansler's Drug Store, I have every reason to recommend them. Whenever my kidneys have been irregular in action or I have suffered from weakness and lameness in the small of my back, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills. They have always proven sufficient to quickly cure and attack."

Mrs. Schatzmann is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Schatzmann uses—the remedy backed by home testimony.

SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of his place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught.

Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has been tried more than a million people.

TWO PICTURES

Miss George Washington Starring Marguerite Clark and "What Will People Say" With Mme. Petrova as Leading Lady Will Be Shown at the Washington Monday Night.

Managers Russell and Watkins of the Washington Opera House will give two pictures to their patrons on next Monday night, the first being Marguerite Clark in "Miss George Washington," and the second Mme. Petrova in "What Will People Say." They were compelled to raise the price on the first picture and decided to give two pictures to their patrons.

The mention of the name of George Washington probably recalls more vividly to mind the cherry tree incident than the fact that he was the savior of his country, so thoroughly has that story been instilled into the minds of the youth of the country. Therefore the announcement that Marguerite Clark is to be starred by the Famous Players in their Paramount Picture "Miss George Washington," conjures up one of two pictures—a girl who cannot tell a lie, or a girl who cannot tell the truth. In this case the producers have chosen to parody the name and the story deals with one of the most accomplished little fibbers and mischief makers that one could imagine. Before the story closes, everybody is deceiving everybody else and there is scarcely a reputation that is not torn to shreds. But it is all a good fun, and it all turns out for the best. "Miss George Washington," the first production in which Miss Clark has starred since renewing her contract with the Famous Players, is one of the most delightful comedies in which she has ever appeared.

Mme. Petrova is to appear in the great picture, "What Will People Say," taken from the book of the same name by Rupert Hughes, the great American novelist of the day. The story deals with the problem of a very young woman who is used to every luxury, confronted with the question of choosing between the man of her heart and the man who can give her the luxuries to which she has been accustomed.

Both pictures are well worth the price asked by the management and laded in other cities they bring even higher prices.

RIVER NEWS

The gauge was 40.3 this morning and falling rapidly.

The Greenleaf will pass up today for Pomeroy.

The Courier passed down this morning for Cincinnati.

There was a good deal of ice in the river yesterday, all of it coming from the Pittsburgh district. The movements of the packets were seriously inconvenienced.

The E. Stanley Holland had a digger at the ice piers yesterday removing the debris gathered there during the high water. A number of timbers had been lodged against the pier and brush and drift gathered behind this.

The Government officials have not as yet definitely decided upon the location of lock and dam 25. It had been the original intention of the United States engineers to construct the lock at the foot of Six Mile near Addison but rivermen generally think the dam should be relocated one mile below Kanawha River. Bids have been opened, but the contracts for docks 23 and 25 have not as yet been awarded.

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hall Strobe and Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Pogue entertained with a delightful luncheon and card party, a large number of their friends last evening at the beautiful Pogue home in the West End. The occasion being the birthday anniversary of the two gentlemen and was in their honor. The old home never looked more attractive than upon this occasion. It was one of the most beautiful parties ever given in this city.

NINE FOOT STAGE

Project in Ohio River Is Attacked by Congressman—Says That Plan Is Expensive Experiment and Does Not Think That Commerce Will Increase Any.

Washington, January 25.—The experiment undertaken by the Federal Government in attempting the canalization of the Ohio River to provide a nine-foot stage from Pittsburgh to Cairo, already has cost $59,377,000. Nineteen locks and dams, comprising more than one-third of the total number planned, have not yet been started.

The cost of the entire project was estimated at $92,642,783, which leaves $33,265,000 yet to be expended.

"These figures were given to the House today when the appropriation of $5,000,000 for continuation of the work of improving the Ohio River was reached in the consideration of the Rivers and Harbors Appropriation Bill.

After attacking the item as an "expensive experiment," Representative Frear, of Wisconsin, who is making practically a single-handed fight against the bill, declared he would venture the following prediction relative to the Ohio River:

"If any of us lives long enough to witness the completion of this canalization experiment, I predict that we will not see an increase of commerce on the stream."

Representative Frear's gloomy prophecy that close to $100,000,000 would thus be wasted, was bitterly attacked by Representative Alben W. Barkley, of Kentucky; Switzer, of Ohio, and Meeker of Missouri.

The appropriation for the Ohio River was adopted. The bill does not make a separate appropriation for the maintenance of the stream during the present fiscal year, $500,000 having been provided for this purpose last year.
